

New Vibe Customer Agreement

NEW VIBE.
PUBLISHING

Thank you again for joining the New Vibe family. You're a part of the future of progressive music-making, and we trust you'll do great things with our music!

Please find below our Customer Agreement - it's simple, and solidifies the relationship between yourself and our small family of independent musicians.

Nothing scary, nothing complicated.

Agreement begins:

I, the Customer, confirm that I understand the law, which applies in the UK and internationally, concerning sharing of sheet music.

I agree not to share my New Vibe music in violation of these laws.

If evidence is found that New Vibe music has been illegally shared, New Vibe reserves the right to refuse to deliver files to the offending individual(s) (those sending or receiving illegally), and to refuse any refunds.

I understand my obligation to register performances of New Vibe pieces (if required per www.newvibe.uk), and to contact the composer to agree a licence to make or distribute any recordings of those pieces.

I understand that New Vibe has made every effort to ensure the authenticity & authorship of its pieces. Any disputes regarding rights to the sold material will not be made towards New Vibe or Guy Courtie.

I consent to the entirety of this agreement.

I acknowledge that any breach of this agreement is my fault, and that I am liable for damages and further legal consequences in such case.

I acknowledge that refunds are not available on any New Vibe purchase. If there is a major problem with a delivered .pdf file, or the name on the files does not match that submitted on the purchase form, I can contact newvibe.uk@gmail.com for a replacement file.
